

Link Checker for Local Files

This program is for searching for broken links in HTML files in a local folder and its subfolders. A special case is where these files constitute the local copy of an online website. Another special case is where the files constitute the contents of a CD-ROM.